Game Play

1. A player draws two cards and chooses one of the prompts written on them. Then, they read out a question and write down their top 5 answers.

3. After the player chooses a prompt, the unchosen card gets passed to the next player.
4. The next player then draws one card and keeps the card that was passed by the previous player. The unwanted card keeps getting passed around in this way.
5. The answerer reads their answers aloud.
